

- Applications for employment are accepted without regard to sex, race or color, national origin, handicap/disability, age, religion, or political affiliation. Conviction of a crime does not automatically bar any applicant from employment or other opportunities with ASU Mid-South.
- Applications, once filed, may be subject to disclosure as a public record under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.
- Applications filed do not create a contract of employment with ASU Mid-South. If any individual is hired, employment is not for any definite period of time. Individuals hired will also be required to provide proof of eligibility to work in the United States pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
- Qualified applicants with disabilities, as defined in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, may request any needed accommodations to participate in the application process. If you require any type of special accommodations to assist you in completing applications or during the interview process, please contact the office of Human Resources at 870-733-6774 or email us at lhaggard@asumidsouth.edu.

ASU Mid-South is an EEOC/Affirmative Action Employer. The ASU Mid-South Consumer Information and Crime Report is posted on the ASU Mid-South website under About Us/Campus Safety & Consumer Information, or you may access it by clicking the following link: <https://www.asumidsouth.edu/campus-safety-consumer-info/>

Arkansas State University Mid-South does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any education program or activity that it operates. Further, ASU Mid-South is subject to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and is therefore required by Title IX and 34 C.F.R. Part 106 not to discriminate in such a manner. This requirement extends to admissions and employment with the university. Inquiries about the application of Title IX or 34 C.F.R. Part 106 to ASU Mid-South may be referred to ASU Mid-South's Title IX Coordinator, to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights for the U.S. Department of Education, or both. ASU Mid-South Title IX Coordinator holds the title Director of Title IX and Institutional Equity and may be contacted as follows:

By email: jreece@asumidsouth.edu
By phone: 870-733-6786
In Person: Magruder Hall, MH102E
By mail: Office of Title IX and Institutional Equity, ASU Mid-South, 2000 West Broadway, West Memphis, AR 72301

Any person may report sex discrimination, including sexual harassment (whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sex discrimination or sexual harassment), in person, by phone, or by email using the contact information provided above or by any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report. Such a report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number or email address, or by mail to the office address, provided above.

Terms and Conditions of Application

Please read this statement carefully. By submitting this application, you are agreeing to the following terms:

I certify that the information given herein is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I authorize investigation of all statements in this application as may be necessary in arriving at an employment decision. In the event of employment, I understand that false or misleading information given in my application or interview(s) may result in termination.

Arkansas State University Mid-South is an "At Will" employer. I hereby understand and acknowledge that, unless otherwise defined by applicable law, any employment relationship with ASU Mid-South is of an "at will" nature, which means that the Employee may resign at any time and Employer may discharge Employee at any time with or without cause. It is further understood that this "at will" employment relationship may not be changed by any written document or by conduct unless such change is specifically acknowledged in writing by an authorized executive of the organization.

I hereby give consent to any and all of my prior employers to provide information regarding my employment with them to ASU Mid-South. As authorized by the Quality in Hiring Act of 1999, this information may include date and duration of employment, current pay rate and wage history, job description and duties performed, last written performance evaluation prior to date authorization signed, attendance information, results of drug or alcohol tests administered within one year prior to request, threats of violence, harassing acts, or threatening behavior related to the workplace or directed at another employee, whether separation was voluntary or involuntary and reason for separation, and eligibility for rehire.

I also understand that all job offers are contingent upon a satisfactory background check, and that criminal background checks are performed on the final candidate for each position, and some jobs may require credit checks, or special background checks, and that failure to meet the requirements may lead to my rejection as an applicant for, or termination from, that job.

I understand that if I am hired, I will be required to provide proof of identity and legal authorization to work in the United States and that federal immigration laws require me to complete an I-9 form in this regard.

I AGREE TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS ABOVE

Yes, I understand and agree to the above mentioned terms.

No, I do not agree to the above mentioned terms.
